1.  is a retired foreign service officer, Class I. OPC/FE wants some information from him in view of his Far East experience.

2. They propose an agreement with him which will set a problem and merely ask him, at his own time, to prepare a report. If the report or plan is satisfactory, they wish to pay him on an agreed on number of dollars for it.

3. I believe this is permissible under the dual compensation laws, but I wish you could see if you could find a precedent for me by Monday afternoon. The people to talk to about it, if need be, are  (extension )
